CALIFORNIA TEACHERS OF THE YEAR 2004 ATTACHMENT

Paul Lewanski
Chemistry Teacher
Tustin High School, Tustin Unified School District
California Nominee for National Teacher of the Year

Paul Lewanski of Santa Ana earned a bachelor's degree in the biological sciences and both a master's and doctoral degree in computer education from the United States International University (USIU), San Diego, in addition to his teaching credential from California State University, Fullerton. Besides teaching chemistry for the past four years at Tustin High School, Lewanski also worked as an adjunct professor at USIU and was the science department chair in the ABC Unified School District. In his 19-year career as an educator, he has accumulated numerous honors, including three local teacher-of-the-year awards and teacher of the month. He is a member of an honor society and is listed in the Who's Who Among America's Teachers.

Lewanski's unique method of integrating teaching with life's lessons is evident from a statement in his application for one of the awards in which he wrote: "Educators, for example, can find the common ground that allows students to see how engineering is reflected in art and how art is reflected in the engineering design of cars and buildings thus enhancing student achievement in science, math, and art.... Teachers must help students to see the interconnectedness of what they are learning in order to be able to anticipate the needs of the future."

Paul Lewanski may be reached at Tustin High School, 1171 El Camino Real, Tustin, CA 92780 at 714/730-7422.

and initiated several music and dance programs. During his 22 years as an educator, Coleman has accumulated numerous honors including three local teacher-of-the-year awards, numerous education-related trophies, and is an inductee at the Black Athletic Hall of Fame.

Coleman's passion for teaching is evident from a statement in his application for one of the awards in which he wrote: "Learning is limitless.... The trick is getting the student to believe this. This is not something you can tell them. It is something they must experience. First, you tease them with it. Then you offer this huge platter of opportunity. And watch them feast."

Arthur Coleman, Jr. may be reached at Hamilton Middle School, 2245 E. 11th St., Stockton, CA 95206, at 209/933-7395, x-1626

Dawn Imamoto

Second Grade Teacher

Bryte Elementary School, Washington Unified School District

Dawn Imamoto of Davis earned a bachelor's degree in child development from California State University, Fullerton. She received her multiple subject teaching credential from the University of California, Davis. Besides teaching reading, writing, and math at Bryte Elementary, Imamoto continues to participate in several writing projects for students. In her nine years as an educator, she has received several honors including a literacy award and teacher-of-the-month recognition.

Imamoto's inspiration for teaching came one day as she volunteered to work with a special education class: "I remembered how hard my students had to work just to roll a ball down the bowling alley. As I motivated these kids, I could see a change in their attitude. I felt that my presence made a difference. The smiles on their faces always filled me with joy as they accomplished their goals. It was then that I knew that I wanted to be a teacher and work with children."

Dawn Imamoto may be reached at Bryte Elementary School, 637 Todhunter Ave., West Sacramento, CA 95605, at 916/375-7660.

Paul McLaughlin

Math Teacher

Suzanne Middle School, Walnut Valley Unified School District

Paul McLaughlin of Chino Hills earned a master's degree in school administration from California State University, Los Angeles. He earned his teaching credential from Mount Saint Mary's College in Los Angeles. Besides teaching at Suzanne Middle School for the past 10 years, he also has taught at four other schools in the Los Angeles area as a teacher, dean, counselor, and principal. In his 25 years as an educator, McLaughlin has won numerous honors including local teacher of the year, National Board for Professional Teaching Standards certification, and several Yearbook Journalism First Place Awards from the Columbia University Scholastic Press Association.

McLaughlin's dedication to education is evident from a statement in his application for one of the awards in which he wrote: "I still hold to the belief that teachers are born, not made.... I am fortunate to see many of my former students in all walks of life. To be remembered as having made an impact in their lives is my greatest achievement."

Paul McLaughlin may be reached at Suzanne Middle School, 525 Suzanne Rd., Walnut, CA 91789, at 909/594-1657.

Zenaida Rosario

Third Grade Teacher

La Mirada Elementary, San Ysidro School District

Zenaida Rosario of San Ysidro earned a master's degree in educational administration and supervision from San Diego State University. Besides teaching third grade for the past five years at La Mirada Elementary, Rosario also was a bilingual teacher at other schools in southern California. In her 21-year career as an educator, Rosario has won numerous honors including local teacher-of-the-year awards, perfect classroom attendance for the past five years, and an award for leadership.

Rosario's commitment to education is evident in her application for one of the awards in which she wrote: "My students believe in themselves because I instill in them their capability of achieving anything they set their minds to. [T]his they know because I have told them that they can (and) that they are never to give up on achieving their dreams. I give all of my strength to provide them the best learning experience and hope that they take these skills along the years to reach their goals."

Zenaida Rosario may be reached at La Mirada Elementary, 222 Avenida de la Madrid, San Ysidro, CA 92173, 619/428-4424.
